

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Gary Kuchta has dedicated nearly 25 years of service as an employee with the state of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Gary and his wife, Velma, gave life and love to four children, Chad, Trissy, Mike, and Sharice, and now have seven grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Gary has executed the duties of each position he has held in a dutiful manner as is humanly possible, the last being a senior driver license examiner, and now wishes to enjoy life fishing and gardening; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper to honor this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of his retirement on April 30, 2004:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 30, 2004, as in South Dakota, and I join his many friends and colleagues in offering Gary best wishes for a healthy, happy, and enjoyable retirement.

GARY KUCHTA DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-eighth Day of April in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Four.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State

